Mr. Palmer,

I am writing this letter to request that you omit my name from your site.
<http://lighthouseavenue.com/tag/police-blotter/>
(The police blotter DUI Arrest on 1-7-2011 Khosrowmanesh-Masoud).

To be arrested, specially unjustly is a very traumatic experience, without (or even) knowing the details and the legal outcome of any arrest, posting names is not only hurtful, it creates and holds us in the energy of "Police State" mentality that harms everyone's psyche.

Given the permanency of the Internet such reports about police charges can do harm to individuals in one way or another eventually.

Peace,

M.Khosrowmanesh
